The purpose of this amendment is to amend the status of the secondary structure (garage) at 3126 NE 10th Avenue, Portland from "contributing" status to "noncontributing." The property is within the Irvington Historic District, in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. Review by the Portland Landmarks Commission, found that the initial survey of the historic district from the public right-of-way misidentified the evaluation of the garage and did not notice several key alterations that substantially impacted the garage's integrity. The missed visual clues include a difference in the size of the garage from the original 1924 permit to present day; a change to the garage's form, most notably an awkward notch on the SW corner of the garage; the use of modern materials, including new siding and trim; and the remains of a concrete slab that now sits behind the garage that was likely the original garage footprint. These alterations leave the garage with diminished integrity such that it is recommended to be reclassified as "non-contributing." At the request of the owner and the City of Portland Historic Landmarks Commission, and in review of the submitted supporting documentation, the Oregon State Historic Preservation Office concurs that the garage in question does not contribute to the Irvington Historic District. With this amendment, the status of the garage at 3126 NE 10th Ave. is "non-contributing."
