Oregon Historic Site Record

	ROPERTY NAME
ddress: 614 E Main St				historic name:	Schulmerich, Edward, House
	Hillsboro, Washington Cou	nty		current/other names:
assoc addresses:				block/lot/tax lot:
location descr:				twnshp/rng/sect/qtr sect:	5S 2E 9
PROPERTY CHARA	ACTERISTICS
resource type:	Building height (s	stories): 1	.5	total elig resources:	2 tota	l inelig resources:
elig evaluation:	eligible/significant			NR Status:	Individually Liste	d
prim constr date:	c.1915 second of	date:		date indiv listed:	02/28/1991
primary orig use:	Single Dwelling			orig use comments:
second orig use:
primary style:	Bungalow (Type)			prim style comments:
secondary style:				sec style comments:
primary siding:	Stucco			siding comments:
secondary siding:	Wood:Other/Undefined
plan type:				architect:
				builder:
comments/notes:
EC garage
GROUPINGS / ASSO	OCIATIONS
Survey/Grouping Incl	uded In:		Туре	of Grouping	Date List		Compiled
Hillsboro Local Inven	ntory Update 2008		Surve	y & Inventory Project		2008
SHPO INFORMATI	ON FOR THIS PROPER	ГҮ
NR date listed: 02	/28/1991	Special As	sessment		106 Proj	ect(s): None
ILS survey date:		Status	Ter	m End Yr	Federal	Tox
RLS survey		Closed	1st	2007	Project(
date: 07	/01/2008
	/ DDADEDTV DESCOID
	/ PROPERTY DESCRIP tion of the building/property, sett		landscape featur	res, outbuildings and alterations)
Includes expanded descripti Architectural Descriptic term is used because of two-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables arc kneebraces supporting the main living space. A		ing, significant s a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. ls, double hur wide overhar l eave. The fe	izontally mass and projecting The Craftsmang windows w ng eaves have enestrations and	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec e in groups of threes, and i	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the second	is complex, featuring in a porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo	ntersecting gables, piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light
Includes expanded description Architectural Description term is used because of two-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are kneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro.	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i T the low massing, cockpit-li d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm	ing, significant s a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. ls, double hur wide overhan l eave. The fe taan bungalow	izontally mass and projectin . The Craftsma ng windows w ng eaves have enestrations an are well exect	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec re in groups of threes, and in ated in this example, making	It in a style sometimu style. The roof plan i nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the second it the best example	is complex, featuring in a porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo	ntersecting gables, piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light
Includes expanded descripti Architectural Descriptic term is used because of two-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are kneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i T the low massing, cockpit-li d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxed All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its co	ing, significant s a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. ls, double hur wide overhat l eave. The fe tan bungalow	izontally mass and projectin . The Craftsman ng windows w ng eaves have enestrations an are well exect with at least the	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec re in groups of threes, and in ated in this example, making	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan in nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the second it the best example present )	is complex, featuring in porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl	ntersecting gables, piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light hitecture in
Includes expanded descript Architectural Description term is used because of two-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are kneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive Historical Significance: $850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general his father died in 1901 I out soon after to J.W. C owned the Schulmerich toy shad two sons, Roy	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i T the low massing, cockpit-li d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hui wide overhan a eave. The fe an bungalow onstruction thro uis house built His father, C Conrad purce er of Second ook charge of sted as the pr nd. In 1926 E 1937. His to	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsman g windows we enestrations and are well exect with the sector of the sector t circa 1915. If Conrad Schulm thased several and Main. (Sf f his father's f esident of the dward was stii may have bee mbstone reads	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec e in groups of threes, and in ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the replaced an earlier dwelling erich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work i Hillsboro Commercial Bank, Il listed as the president of th n the first co-op creamery ii : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan inassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the second it the best example present ) g that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Commer n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal	is complex, featuring in porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature p d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schur rcial Bank. Edward als . His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light hitecture in is lot in 1901 for gold in Californi e of his sons he in Portland. When The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich.
Includes expanded description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are sneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive Historical Significance: $850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general his father died in 1901 1 bout soon after to J.W. C bowned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery with they had two sons, Roy and Celina Maas in 1941 RESEARCH INFORI	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i the low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxed All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its co Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents. ith several thousand dollars, store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and t connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farm y and Bruce. Edward died in to. The house is significant of MATION	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hui wide overhan d eave. The fe an bungalow onstruction thro nis house built His father, C Conrad purc near of Second ook charge of sted as the pr nd. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to ue to its asse	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsman g windows we enestrations and are well exect with the sector of the sector t circa 1915. If Conrad Schulm thased several and Main. (Sf f his father's f esident of the dward was stii may have bee mbstone reads	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec re in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the replaced an earlier dwelling terich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work ' Hillsboro Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of th n the first co-op creamery ii : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- stit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks ie mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schu rcial Bank. Edwar Class Y. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was ten and banker.	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light hitecture in is lot in 1901 for gold in California e of his sons he in Portland. When The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich.
Includes expanded description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are sneebraces supporting he main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive Historical Significance: $850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general is father died in 1901 1 out soon after to J.W. C owned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery w Chey had two sons, Roy und Celina Maas in 1941 RESEARCH INFORI Title Records	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house is the low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxed All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its co Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents, ith several thousand dollars, store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and t connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farm y and Bruce. Edward died in t0. The house is significant of MATION	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hui wide overhar d eave. The fe an bungalow onstruction thro this house built His father, C Conrad purc ner of Second ook charge of sted as the pr nd. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to Jue to its asso	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsming windows we nestrations and are well exect and the exect ough at least the international transformed several and Main. (S f his father's f esident of the dward was stiing may have bee mbstone reads ociations with	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec e in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the replaced an earlier dwelling terich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work Hillsbord Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of the n the first co-op creamery ii : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror Property Tax Rec	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- stit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pi d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schur rcial Bank. Edward als /. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was ten and banker.	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal urlins and nd windows light hitecture in is lot in 1901 for gold in Californi e of his sons he in Portland. When The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich.
Includes expanded description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are sneebraces supporting he main living space. A dillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive distorical Significance: S850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general sis father died in 1901 uit soon after to J.W. C bowned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery w Chey had two sons, Roy and Celina Maas in 194 RESEARCH INFORN Title Records Sanborn Maps	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i The low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its ca Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents. ith several thousand dollars. store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and te connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farr y and Bruce. Edward died in 10. The house is significant of MATION Cens Biogn	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry, ls, double hur wide overhan d eave. The fe han bungalow onstruction thro his house built His father, C Conrad purc er of Second ook charge of sted as the pr ad. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to due to its assoc	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsming windows we nestrations and are well exect and the exect ough at least the international transformed several and Main. (S f his father's f esident of the dward was stiing may have bee mbstone reads ociations with	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dece e in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the t replaced an earlier dwelling terich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work Hillsboro Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of th n the first co-op creamery ii : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror Property Tax Rec SHPO Files	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- stit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in complex, featuring in composition and ngular composition and egable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks i e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schr recial Bank. Edward als /. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was zen and banker. Local Histories Interviews	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal arrlins and nd windows light hitecture in s lot in 1901 for g gold in Californi e of his sons he in Portland. Wher The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich. s sold to Alfonse
Includes expanded descript Architectural Description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are sneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive Historical Significance: $850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general is father died in 1901 1 out soon after to J.W. C bowned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery w They had two sons, Roy and Celina Maas in 194 RESEARCH INFORI Title Records	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i The low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its ca Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents, ith several thousand dollars, store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and to connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farm y and Bruce. Edward died in 10. The house is significant of MATION Cens Biogn News	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hui wide overhar d eave. The fe an bungalow onstruction thro this house built His father, C Conrad purc ner of Second ook charge of sted as the pr nd. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to Jue to its asso	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsming windows we nestrations and are well exect and the exect ough at least the international transformed several and Main. (S f his father's f esident of the dward was stiing may have bee mbstone reads ociations with	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec e in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the replaced an earlier dwelling terich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work Hillsbord Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of the n the first co-op creamery ii : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror Property Tax Rec	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- stit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in porch foundation and ngular composition an e gable ends feature pi d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schur rcial Bank. Edward als /. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was ten and banker.	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal arrlins and nd windows light hitecture in s lot in 1901 for g gold in California e of his sons he in Portland. Wher The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich. s sold to Alfonse
Includes expanded description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are scenebraces supporting he main living space. A fillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive distorical Significance: S850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general his father died in 1901 1 bout soon after to J.W. C wwned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery wi co-operative creamery with two sons, Roy and Celina Maas in 1941 RESEARCH INFORI Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries City Directories	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i The low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its ca Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents, ith several thousand dollars, store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and to connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farm y and Bruce. Edward died in 10. The house is significant of MATION Cens Biogn News	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hur is double hur eave. The fe tan bungalow enstruction thro its house buill His father, C C Conrad purc er of Second ook charge of hol. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to due to its assec	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsm. ng windows w ng eaves have enestrations an are well exect and the exect of the circa 1915. If Conrad Schulm thased several and Main. (S f his father's f esident of the dward was sti may have be mbstone reads ociations with ces	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dece e in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the t replaced an earlier dwelling erich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work Hillsboro Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of th n the first co-op creamery in : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror Property Tax Rec SHPO Files State Archives	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- tit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in complex, featuring in composition and ngular composition and egable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks i e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schr recial Bank. Edward als /. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was zen and banker. Local Histories Interviews	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal arrlins and nd windows light hitecture in is lot in 1901 for gold in Californi e of his sons he in Portland. When The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich. s sold to Alfonse
Includes expanded description Architectural Description erm is used because of wo-tiered massing, and combination of shingle massing. The gables are sneebraces supporting the main living space. A Hillsboro. HISTORY Chronological, descriptive Historical Significance: $850. Edward was born and came to Oregon wi opened a large general his father died in 1901 I ust soon after to J.W. C bowned the Schulmerich co-operative creamery of They had two sons, Roy and Celina Maas in 194 RESEARCH INFORI Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries	tion of the building/property, sett on: The Schulmerich house i The low massing, cockpit-lii d an expansive porch with a and shiplap surface materia e very low pitched, and the a barge board and un-boxec All the elements of a craftsm history of the property from its ca Edward Schulmerich had th in 1863 to German parents, ith several thousand dollars, store on the southwest corr he moved to Hillsboro and to connell. In 1912 Edward is li Building at Main and Secon which was located near Farm y and Bruce. Edward died in 10. The house is significant of MATION Cens Biogn News	ing, significant is a large, hor ke gable end, gabled entry. Is, double hur is double hur eave. The fe tan bungalow enstruction thro its house buill His father, C C Conrad purc er of Second ook charge of hol. In 1926 E nington. This 1937. His to due to its assec	izontally mass and projecting. The Craftsm. ng windows w ng eaves have enestrations an are well exect and the exect the circa 1915. If Conrad Schulm thased several and Main. (S f his father's f esident of the dward was sti may have bee mbstone reads ociations with ces	ed Craftsman Bungalow bui g wing characteristic of this an style is expressed in the r ith multi-panes in the upper exposed rafters that are dec re in groups of threes, and ii ated in this example, making historic period - preferably to the replaced an earlier dwelling terich, was a well known and farms, raised grain, and ma ee Resource No. 23) Edwar arms. He also went to work 'i Hillsboro Commercial Bank. Il listed as the president of the n the first co-op creamery in : A Fearless, Upright, Helpf Edward Schulmerich, a pror Property Tax Rec SHPO Files State Archives State Library	It in a style sometime style. The roof plan nassive klinker-brick sash, and in its recta oratively milled. The n ranks on the secon- tit the best example present ) that was his prior re d influential man. He de creamery butter. d worked as a teams with his brother in th and the Hillsboro Line Hillsboro Commen n Washington County ul Citizen – A Loyal ninent Hillsboro citiz	is complex, featuring in complex, featuring in composition and ngular composition and egable ends feature pu d story. Leaded diamo of Bungalow-style arcl sidence. He bought thi spent 18 years mining In partnership with on ter, and on the docks i e mercantile business. very Co. Inc. The Schr recial Bank. Edward als /. His wife was Ella M Friend. The house was zen and banker. Local Histories Interviews	ntersecting gables piers, the d horizontal arrlins and nd windows light hitecture in s lot in 1901 for g gold in Californi e of his sons he in Portland. Wher The brothers sold almerich family o organized a ay Schulmerich. s sold to Alfonse