Oregon Historic Site Record

LUCATION AND PF	ROPERTY NAME
address:	36930 Happy Hollow Rd hist	oric name:	Post House
		rent/other names:	Strout House
assoc addresses: location descr:	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	ck/lot/tax lot: shp/rng/sect/qtr sect:	11S 7W 6
		sup/ing/sect/qti sect.	115 / ₩ 0
PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS
resource type:		al elig resources:	total inelig resources:
elig evaluation: prim constr date:	0	Status: e indiv listed:
-
primary orig use: second orig use:	Single Dwelling ori	g use comments:
primary style:	Gothic Revival prin	n style comments:
secondary style:	sec	style comments:
primary siding:	Horizontal Board sid	ng comments:
secondary siding: plan type:	are	hitect:
plan type.		der:
comments/notes:
GROUPINGS / ASSO
Survey/Grouping Incl			Date Listed Date Compiled
Benton County RLS Survey 2009 Survey & Inventory Project 2009
SHPO INFORMATION	ON FOR THIS PROPERTY
NR date listed: N/A	A	106 Project(s):	None
ILS survey date:		Special Assess	None
RLS survey 09	/30/2009	Project(s):
date:		Federal Tax Project(s):	None
ARCHITECTURAL / PROPERTY DESCRIPTION
(Includes expanded descript	ion of the building/property, setting, significant landscape features, o	outbuildings and alterations)
	ion of the building/property, setting, significant landscape features, of porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th		porch posts and decoratively sawn brackets on porch.
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea	e main façade; champered j wing. Overhanging eaves;	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads.
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea	e main façade; champered I r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new additio on Summit - Historic District potential.	e main façade; champered [r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition n Summit - Historic District potential.	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is estory, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition n Summit - Historic District potential.	e main façade; champered [r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location,	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story sent) setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some um town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with the town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted tho related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition. - Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un e town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve pute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, issual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition. - Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve oute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this bu	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, issual design elements. The route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th t this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti i that the railroad from Corv tilding's early history. The H	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In 'allis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement,
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (thronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former roo from Missouri to Oregoo 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some une town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve bute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 1885 on the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this be, all suggest that the building may have originally functio	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre- the integrity of its location, usual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Y d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti is that the railroad from Corv ilding's early history. The l hed as a hotel or boarding h	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former ro from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post platt had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition. - Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve oute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this bu	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti 5 that the railroad from Corv vilding's early history. The l ed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chai	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is estory, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In raallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably house's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former ro from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post platt had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition. - Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un e town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve ute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188: n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this be e, all suggest that the building may have originally functio m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Pos fansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad.	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti 5 that the railroad from Corv vilding's early history. The l ed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chai	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is estory, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In raallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably house's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted tho related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential.	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti 5 that the railroad from Corv vilding's early history. The l ed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chai	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is estory, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In raallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably house's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFORM Title Records	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- ted the corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this be e, all suggest that the building may have originally functiod. most sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post fansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. MATION	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, Isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th t this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti i that the railroad from Corv tilding's early history. The l ned as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chan The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story sent) setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post, aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the construction located on the former reform Missouri to Oregoo 1885, William Post platt had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFORM Title Records Sanborn Maps	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some une town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some une town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve pute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 1885 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this be e, all suggest that the building may have originally functiod. m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post fansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. recent years. MATION Census Records Biographical Sources	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, usual design elements. The I route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti to that the railroad from Corv iliding's early history. The I hed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chan The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record SHPO Files	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories Interviews
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFORM Title Records	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- ted the corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this be e, all suggest that the building may have originally functiod. most sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post fansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. MATION	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, Isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th t this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti i that the railroad from Corv tilding's early history. The l ned as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Chan The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story sent) setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post, aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive) Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former rc from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFORI Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries City Directories	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition. - Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some un- to the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve oute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 188 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this bis- e, all suggest that the building may have originally functio m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post lansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. recent years. MATION Census Records Biographical Sources Newspapers Building Permits	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, isual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti is that the railroad from Corv tilding's early history. The H ed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Char The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record SHPO Files State Archives State Library	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories Interviews
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former ref from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post plat had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFOR Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve bute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions on n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired tille from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 1888 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this bio- e, all suggest that the building may have originally functio. m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post atansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. recent years. MATION Census Records Biographical Sources Newspapers Building Permits Univer	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, usual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti 5 that the railroad from Corv ilding's early history. The l ned as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Char The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record SHPO Files State Archives	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories Interviews
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevatio HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former ro from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post platt had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFOR Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries City Directories Local Library: Historical Society:	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new addition on Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit Architecturally, the house has some un- te town of Summit in 1885. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve bute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions on n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired tille from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 1888 n the mid or late 1880's. Uncertainties also surround this bio- e, all suggest that the building may have originally functio. m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Post atansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. recent years. MATION Census Records Biographical Sources Newspapers Building Permits Univer	e main façade; champered j r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, issual design elements. The l route of the Corvallis to Ya d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti is that the railroad from Corv tilding's early history. The f hed as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Char The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record SHPO Files State Archives State Library sity Library:	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories Interviews
One story half-hip roof Decoratively sawn porc Cornerboards, rake and located to the west side and wooden deck. Skyli balcony on west elevation HISTORY (Chronological, descriptive Written by Mary Weber the oldest building in th William Post platted the related to the constructi located on the former ref from Missouri to Orego 1885, William Post platt had this building built i and the double entrance located. In 1896, Willia this property from the F owned this house until RESEARCH INFORI Title Records Sanborn Maps Obituaries City Directories Local Library: Historical Society: Bibliography:	porch across width of main façade. Two entry doors on th h railing still remains on west side of porch. One story rea frieze boards. Situated on a lower hillside above the town of the railroad tracks and is accessed by a gravel drive of ghts incerted into roof on both the original and new additio n Summit - Historic District potential. history of the property from its construction through at least the histo & Kathy Schutt in 11/5/1984: The Post-Strout House, with e town of Summit. Architecturally, the house has some une town of Summit. In 1855. The house is situated next to the on of the railroad. The town of Summit, which once serve oute of the Corvallis-Yaquina Bay Wagon Road. Portions o n in 1876. In 1884, the Posts acquired title from the U.S. g ted the town of Summit in this location. In was also in 1885 et all suggest that the building may have originally functio m Post sold this property to Katie Post. In 1897, Katie Pos Jansens. Ed Strouts was a section foreman on the railroad. recent years. MATION Census Records Biographical Sources Newspapers Building Permits	e main façade; champered p r wing. Overhanging eaves; of Summit, the Post-Strout Happy Hollow Road. Single n. Also and addition of proj ric period - preferably to the pre the integrity of its location, usual design elements. The I route of the Corvallis to Yi d as a railroad camp, was th f this wagon road are still vi overnment to a quarter secti is that the railroad from Corv ilding's early history. The I ned as a hotel or boarding h t apparently remarried Char The Strouts family used a p Property Tax Record SHPO Files State Archives State Library sity Library: Respository:	enclosed rafters. Cornice-style window heads. House fronts east, parallel to the main road. The house is e story, rectangular addition added to the north elevation ecting bay windows on the west elevation. 2nd story setting, and exterior design intact, is significant as possibly house was probably built for William and Katie Post. aquina Bay railroad. The location of the house may be e highest point on the railroad route. The house is also sible in the Summit area. William and Katie Post came on of land in the western portion of Benton County. In vallis to Yaquina Bay was completed. The Posts probably ouse's large rectangular volume, the interior arrangement, ouse. Historic records to document this have not been les Hansen. Edward and Storme Strouts received title to portion of the house to board railroad crews. The Strouts s Local Histories Interviews

Alma, Interview, Nov. 15, 1984.