| (Includes expanded description of the building/property, setting, significant landscape features, outbuildings and alterations) | | | |
| Exterior boom lift rear, on plan stairway in common wall with Masonic building unpurchased by Bohnenkamps, has only functioning water lift in La Grande. Landscape: Has stove space beneath Elm Street and Adams Avenue walks. Alterations: In 1913-14 top two floors were altered into three after fire of 9/26/1913 | | | |
| HISTORY | | | |
| (Chronological, descriptive history of the property from its construction through at least the historic period - preferably to the present) | | | |
| Originally a three-story commercial block constructed 1897-1900, the Queen Anne style building was entirely rebuilt above the first floor in 1913-14 after a disastrous fire on September 26, 1913 (Hermens, 19, 20 and Dykes Collection). A floor was added, | | | |
